DEAR PARISHIONERS and VISITORS:

On the reality TV show The Amazing Race, participants race around the world and compete in physical challenges to win a million dollars. The host gives this “benediction” to the racers at the start of each season: “The world is waiting for you. Good luck. Travel safe. Go!” The racers take off for the airport and their first destination. The scene in today’s Gospel isn’t all that different. Disciples gather, Jesus gives final instructions, and off they go. With little luggage, slower means of travel, and instructions to not greet anyone along the way, they may not have had as thrilling an adventure as The Amazing Race contestants, but there was probably enough drama for a first century reality show called The Amazing Evangelization.

Of course, the disciples weren’t pursuing a million-dollar prize. Instead, they sought to cure the sick, bring healing, and spread the Good News of Jesus.

That raises a question for us—how outward directed is our faith? Some denominations place a particularly intense focus on the “Jesus-and-me” relationship—how Jesus has saved me, how he is my “personal” Savior.

Of course, a personal relationship with Jesus is extremely important. But unless that relationship leads us outward to serve God’s children, then I’m not sure we’re truly following Jesus’ example. Jesus is clear that discipleship requires trusting God and going out to bring hope and healing to others. What are we doing each day to bring God’s loving touch to those in need? How “amazing” is our evangelization?

PRAYER for the Week for the Feastday of SAINT MARIA GORETTI
on July 6th

Dear Little Saint Maria Goretti!

Teach me that God must be my first love and that all other love is based on Him and Him alone.

Obtain for me the grace to cease toying with the occasions of sin and to remember that my body and the bodies of all in grace are temples of the Holy Spirit, destined someday for a glorious resurrection.

Through your beautiful example, teach me the value and dignity of Christian modesty.

Grant that I may never be the occasion of dragging others into Hell, by suggestive words or evil deeds of any kind.

Through the merits of your Martyrdom, obtain for me the grace to turn aside from sin, no matter what the cost, so that one day I may enjoy Heaven with you and all the other saints. Amen.

Saint Maria Goretti is the patron saint of young women. She was born near Ancona, Italy, in 1890. Her parents were poor farm workers, and her father died while she was still a child. When Maria was 12 years old, she rebuffed the advances of an 18-year old young man, Alessandro, their neighbor, who threatened to kill her if she did not submit to him. Enraged by Maria’s refusal, he stabbed her several times. Maria died on July 6, 1902, having forgiven him.

Alessandro was sentenced to 30 years in prison. After his release, he sought - and received - forgiveness from Maria’s mother. Both he and Maria’s family lived to see her canonized in 1950 by Pope Pius XII for her defense of Christian virtue.

Las obras del Señor son admirables

No lleven dinero, ni morral, ni sandalias. No se puede predicar el Evangelio para ganar dinero y enriquecerse. Sería traicionarlo en aquello que constituye su más íntima esencia.

La recomendación es también el no detenerse a saludar a nadie en el camino. Esta encomienda tiene el significado de no perder el tiempo. El contenido de la misión no consiste simplemente en ayudar a los paganos a vivir mejor en el paganismo. Los enviados deben curar enfermos, perdonar pecados y poner en la disyuntiva responsable de aceptar o no el bautismo.

La Palabra en tu vida

El Señor ha dejado a su Iglesia, es decir nosotros, la misión de proclamar la Buena Nueva. Debemos realizarla confiando en el poder del Espíritu Santo, no sólo en nuestras capacidades. Señor Jesús, mándanos a tu Espíritu para cumplir esa misión como Tú quieres.

¡ Se aproxima !

Como recordarán, en el mes de Julio festejamos con alegría nuestra filiación a la fé Católica, Apostólica, Romana con un alegre paseo comunitario en el que participamos los feligreses de la Catedral de Nuestra Señora del Santo Rosario. Habrá diversión para toda la familia. Próximamente te enteraremos de más detalles.
