DEAR PARISHIONERS and VISITORS:

The second Sunday of Easter was given this special title of Divine Mercy Sunday by Pope St. John Paul II in the year 2000. Pope St John Paul II referred to the words of Jesus to St. Faustina: “humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy. Divine Mercy is the Easter gift that the church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity.”

Offering this Divine Mercy to humanity shows itself in practical ways through the corporal works of mercy and the spiritual works of mercy.

Corporal works of mercy: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, comfort the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead.

Spiritual works of mercy: admonish the sinner, instruct the ignorant, counsel the doubtful, comfort the sorrowful, bear wrongs patiently, forgive injuries, and pray for the living and the dead.

It is good for us to pray for each other, to encourage each other in these ways of living out and sharing God’s gift to us of Divine Mercy, not only on this Sunday but every day of the year. Fr. Galvon

Archdiocesan Prayer for the Jubilee Year of Mercy

All merciful Father, through the reconciling love of your Son and healing power of the Holy Spirit, fill us with the richness of your mercy.

Grant that each family, the domestic church of the home, be a privileged place of comfort and healing where your mercy is handed down from generation to generation.

May husbands and wives convey forgiveness and love, as sacramental witnesses to the extravagant mercy of the Cross.

May parents embrace their role as primary teachers in the school of mercy, and may brothers and sisters bear each other's burdens and weaknesses with gentle compassion.

May each parish, the family of families, be a place where works of mercy are lived, compassion is freely given, and welcoming arms await all seeking forgiveness on their journey to reconciliation.

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy incarnate, grant that we may be missionary disciples, who bear to the whole human family the transforming light of your Gospel of Mercy. Amen.

Reflection for the Second Sunday of Easter

I was the “jock” in my family growing up. I remember being very proud of the scrapes, scratches, and particularly colorful bruises I gained from tumbles and falls while playing sports.

Sometimes my teammates and I would compare wounds to see whose was the ugliest...and hence, the coolest!

For children, scars and wounds can be something to show off, while adults tend to hide their stretch marks, surgical scars, and bruised skin—often, I think, to appear strong and less vulnerable. We wouldn’t want to appear weak or broken, would we?

However, in today’s Gospel reading, one of the first things Jesus does upon appearing to the disciples after his resurrection is show them the wounds in his hands and his side. This, of course, was a way to prove he was really Jesus—the one they saw crucified just three days earlier.

But it’s significant that even in his glorified, risen body, Jesus still had his wounds. They didn’t magically disappear. He didn’t try to hide them. They were part of him, even in his new, resurrected life.

Only a week after the joy of Easter, it may seem strange to speak about wounds and scars. Yet we know well in our own lives that while we trust in the joy of the resurrection, we still live with broken hearts, broken relationships, and wounded souls. Just because Easter has occurred doesn’t mean our wounds have been erased.

But today’s Gospel reminds us that we have a Savior who knows what it’s like to be hurt, afraid, and broken. He knows our wounds because he still has his. Because of this, he accompanies us...all the way through the cross to new, resurrected life.

STEWARDSHIP IN OUR PARISH

Stewardship Profile of the Week

David

has been coming to the cathedral for 12 years.

He is head altar server, assists priests and the Archbishop at special Masses at the Cathedral and throughout the Archdiocese.

Motto: "I offer my whole life to the Lord in service to Him and the Blessed Mother."

Thank you, David, for your solemnity, reverence and joy, and for your devotion to the celebration of the Holy Mass, and to our priests.

Stewardship Reflection

In today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles we hear it proclaimed that many "signs and wonders" were performed in public by Christ's followers, a demonstration that produced two results. First, the people of Jerusalem outside the Christian community were awed by what the disciples were performing. And in the midst of all this amazement, many were being converted. Good stewards know of the evangelizing power emanating from their daily acts of love, compassion, mercy and generosity. They believe that if they stay focused on Christ each day, every act has the power to transform a broken world. What "signs and wonders" will we perform today?

Lectors - The sacramental celebration of the Word of God is a proclamation which must enlighten the minds of the listeners and inspire them in the journey towards God. New lectors welcome. Attendance at a Lector's Workshop is compulsory. Contact: David Cuan, Davidacuan@gmail.com

Project Advance - Project Advance is an annual diocesan appeal beginning in Spring. If you can help at the launch and follow-up, it would certainly be appreciated. Contact: Bertilla Watanabe Email: bertilla_hrc@shaw.ca

Ushers & Greeters - Help is needed to distribute bulletins, take up the collection, welcome all who come to Mass and generally be ready to serve with a smile! Contact: Gilda Penhold, Email: gilda9488@gmail.com
