DEAR PARISHIONERS and VISITORS:

Sunday Reflection on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

When we were growing up, my siblings and I would often ask our grandmother to tell us stories about our mother when she was young. We liked listening to our mother tell those same stories from her perspective. The stories varied in some details, but it always felt like a veil was lifted on the past and we had some sense of where we came from along with some insight about our mother’s personality.

She, of course, did the same thing for my daughters, making them giggle at the story of my getting into her perfume bottle when I was three. Such stories connect us with the people we know. Old friends trade stories of shared experiences; young companions learn about the world from the stories of their elders and even from the stories their friends tell them about their lives.

In Acts, Peter appeals to his listeners by telling the story they know so well. He even appeals to their shared experience as he says, “You know...” (v. 36). Stories connect us to one another and open the door to understanding each other a little more and a little better. In his story, Peter marks the baptism of Jesus as the beginning of his ministry. Our story in the Christian community begins with baptism as well.

Peter records that Jesus went on “doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him” (v. 38). What would the story of our lives after baptism tell people about us? Would someone like Peter tell people that we went about doing good and loving God and neighbor?

Mary Katharine Deeley - sundaybulletin@liguori.org

Prayer for the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Open the heavens Almighty Father,
and pour out Your spirit upon Your people.
Renew the power of our baptismal cleansing and fill us with zeal for good deeds.

Let us hear Your voice once again, that we may recognize in Your Beloved Son our hope in inheriting eternal life.
Grant this through Jesus Christ,
Your Word made flesh, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, in the splendor of eternal light, God for ever and ever.

Amen.

Tú eres mi Hijo, el predilecto; en ti me complazco.

Esta manifestación de Dios tiene lugar después de que Jesús fue bautizado. El bautismo en agua no es otra cosa sino la ocasión para la revelación que va a tener lugar a continuación. Lucas hace notar que Jesús estaba en oración. A lo largo de todo su evangelio, este evangelista se complacerá en presentar a Jesús orando a su Padre. " Se abrió el cielo ", esta expresión equivale al " rasgarse de los cielos " que encontramos en Marcos (Mc 1,10) y que recuerda la frase de Isaías: " ¡ Ah, si rasgaras los cielos y descendieras ! " (Isaías 63,19). El " abrirse de los cielos " es una imagen que significa una revelación de parte de Dios, y una comunicación entre la tierra y el cielo.

STEWARDSHIP IN OUR PARISH

Stewardship Profile of the Week
Norminda

Has been coming to the cathedral for 7 years.

Serves with the Legion of Mary.

Motto: " God loves a cheerful giver."

Thanks, Norminda, for your missionary service, leadership, and kindness.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

In today's reading from the Gospel of Luke we hear the proclamation of the baptism of Jesus with "all the people." Indeed, "heaven was opened," and the Father announced his special favour. Whenever we partake of the body and blood of Christ, heed his call in our daily lives, share his Good News, become instruments of his transforming justice and peace, heaven is opened to us, and through the Holy Spirit, the Lord announces his special favour on us as well. A good stewardship reflection this week might be this: How, or in what ways, have we personally experienced God's special favour in our lives?
