MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Archdiocese of Vancouver
ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE

Christ is truly risen! Today we celebrate the best news since the Creation of the world: “Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here” (Mk 16:6). This announcement is the very heart of the Gospel passed on from the Apostles, from generation to generation. It is the foundation of our Christian faith and of our hope: Jesus, the Son of Mary, put to death by hanging him on a tree, has risen from the dead on the third day according to the Scriptures (cf. Acts 10:39-40).

Risen from the dead, Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, has conquered the darkness of sin and death forever. Truly, “Death no longer has dominion over him” (Rom 6:9).

Dear brothers and sisters: the Risen Christ has journeyed ahead of us to prepare the new heavens and the new earth (cf. Rev 21:1). There we shall live as one family, as sons and daughters of the Father, united with Christ in the communion of the Holy Spirit. Let us walk with him now in our wounded yet glorious world, firmly believing that by his Cross and Resurrection, Jesus has redeemed the world.

+J. Michael Miller CSB
Archbishop of Vancouver

MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

CATHEDRAL OF OUR LADY OF THE
HOLY ROSARY
RECTOR'S OFFICE

Our Lenten journey of 40 days and through Holy Week and into the Easter season is a new beginning for us. The mystery of the dying and rising of Jesus Christ is at work in our lives but sometimes hidden in the depths of our complex relationships and activities.

We are like the two disciples on their journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus after the reports of the Resurrection of Jesus (see Luke 24.13 -35). They were confused and tired. Until Jesus returns with the absolute fullness of His glory, we might have some difficulties with our faith in Jesus. Sometimes we wonder where God is or why things are still so difficult.

Like those disciples we must return again and again to the Eucharist in which we recognize in a deeper way Jesus in the breaking of the bread. We also come to recognize how much we need the faith community for our journey of faith. We are on the way to our destiny of sharing fully the life and love of Jesus. We are not alone and we can help each other with prayers, encouragement and good example with God's help.

Thank you to everyone who has helped with the Holy Week and Easter liturgies at Holy Rosary Cathedral. May God continue to bless us as we continue our faith journey with the Risen Lord.

Fr. Galvon

San Cromacio de Aquileya
Sermón: Nueva creación
(Sermón 17, segundo para la Noche de Pascua: SC 154)

«Hago el universo nuevo (Ap 21,5)»

He aquí pues el tiempo de Pascua. Antaño, Moisés habló al pueblo diciendo: “Este mes será para vosotros el primer mes del año” (Ex 12,2)... El primer mes del año no es pues el del enero, donde todo estaba muerto, sino el tiempo de Pascua, dónde todo vuelve a la vida. Porque es ahora cuando la hierba de los prados, en cierto modo, resucita de la muerte, ahora que hay flores en los árboles, y que las vides brotan, ahora que el aire mismo parece feliz como si empezara un nuevo año... Este tiempo de Pascua es pues el primer mes, el tiempo nuevo, y en este día el género humano también es renovado. Porque hoy, en el mundo entero, pueblos innumerables resucitan por el agua del bautismo a una vida nueva...

Nosotros pues, que creemos que el tiempo de Pascua es verdaderamente el año nuevo, debemos celebrar este día santo con gran felicidad, gozo, y alegría espiritual, con el fin de poder decir en toda verdad este estribillo del salmo: “Este es el día en que actuó el Señor; vivámoslo con alegría y gozo” (117,24).
