MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

With the beginning of February, we have some very meaningful practices in our Catholic calendar.

On February 2, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, we think of Jesus, the Light of the world, being brought into the Temple by Mary and Joseph. The Vatican document Ceremonies of the Liturgical Year describes the feast this way: "In obedience to the Old Law, the Lord Jesus, the first-born, was presented in the Temple by his Blessed Mother and his foster father. This is another 'epiphany' celebration insofar as the Christ Child is revealed as the Messiah through the canticle and words of Simeon and the testimony of Anna the prophetess. Christ is the Light of the nations, hence the blessing and procession of candles on this day."

We will endeavor to bless candles at the beginning of the 7:15 AM, 8:00 AM and 12:10 PM Masses on February 2. They are helpful to have at home to remind us of Jesus, as the "light of the world - a light that darkness cannot overcome." Please bring candles from home that you wish to have blessed and they will be included as we bless the candles that will be used on the Altar.

February 2 is also the World Day for Consecrated Life. It is a special day to pray for the religious women and men who serve the Church and all God's people by their dedicated life of poverty, chastity and obedience.

- Fr. Galvon

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION

According to the Church's liturgical calendar, the feast held on Feb. 2 each year is in honor of the Presentation of the Lord. Some Catholics recall this day as the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary because such was the feast day named until the 1969 changes in the Church's calendar.

The Gospel of Luke explains that the old prophet Simeon and the prophetess Anna were at the Temple that day. They, like many others, had spent their lifetime waiting, longing for a Messiah, and the Holy Spirit had revealed to Simeon that he would not die until he had seen the Savior. Among all the children and mothers coming into the Temple, Simeon recognized Jesus as the Christ Child; he held Jesus and exclaimed this hymn of thanksgiving, "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel" (Lk. 2, 29 - 32). The hymn has traditionally been termed the Nunc Dimittis, from the Latin, "Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Domine, secundum verbum tuum in pace."

Like Mary, Jesus the Divine Son of God did not have to undergo these rituals, but His parents willingly complied in order to pay tribute to Jewish laws, to avoid any possible scandal and in so doing demonstrated profound humility. They acquiesced to the law like all poor Jewish families.

Let us ask God to make us humble like Our Blessed Lord and the Blessed Virgin. It is in this humility that we show fidelity to the love that God has for us.

P R A Y E R

OBLESSED MOTHER, the sword is already in your heart. You foreknow the future of the Fruit of your womb. May our fidelity in following Him through the coming mysteries of His public life bring some alleviations to the sorrows of your maternal heart.

SUNDAY MASS

III SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
MASS READINGS

FIRST READING Nehemiah 8, 2 - 4a, 5 - 6, 8 - 10

The people understood the book of the Law as it was read to them.

RESPONSORIAL Psalm 19

R. Your words, Lord, are spirit and life.

SECOND READING I Corinthians 12, 12 - 14, 27

Your form the body of Christ, yet each of you is a different part of it.

GOSPEL Luke 1, 1 - 4; 4, 14 - 21

Today this Scripture has been fulfilled.

MASS REFLECTION

He has anointed me. (Luke 4:18)

Often, when we read Scripture we see an immediate meaning and a long-term meaning. Take today's Gospel, where Jesus proclaims that the Spirit of the Lord has anointed him to bring good news. In the immediate sense, we know that Jesus really was anointed by the Holy Spirit when he was baptized by John in the Jordan River. But in the long-term sense, Jesus wants us to know that the same Spirit has anointed us as well.

When Jesus gave us the Great Commandment—to love God and to love one another—he was telling us to follow his example. He was telling us to go and set people free. He was urging us to hear and respond to the cry of the poor. He was asking us to be as concerned with people who are in need as we are with our relationship with him.

Ever since that time, Christians have held a special place in their hearts for the poor, the marginalized, the sick, prisoners, and the unborn. Shelters for the homeless, soup kitchens, prison ministries, and the protection for those who cannot protect themselves are woven into the heart of the Church's mission.

There are so many Christian organizations working to erase poverty, to improve education, to raise living standards, and to bring medical help to those who need it. But the cry of the poor still calls out to us. There are still homeless people living in tents and under bridges. There are still entire populations suffering from famine. There are still countless people dying from treatable diseases. And Jesus is still urging us to do whatever we can to help them.

The challenge can seem overwhelming. Nonetheless, if each one of us could add an hour or two every month to answer the Lord's call, that would mean an increase of thousands of hours. Imagine the joy it would give Jesus to see all his people taking their spiritual anointing seriously and laboring to set people free!

*"Here I am, Lord. You have anointed me, and I want to serve."
The Word Among Us*
