DEAR PARISHIONERS and VISITORS:

Sometimes people ask us why we use different numbers of candles on the altar at Mass. According to Bishop Peter Elliott, the well known liturgist, there are only four possibilities in the Roman Rite: two, four, six, and seven. The seven candles applies only when the bishop celebrates a Mass.

As to the other possibilities, Bishop Elliott says that a good custom has arisen of using two candles for ferial Masses and memorials, four candles for feasts, and six for Sundays and solemnities.

The meaning of the candle is that as it burns down it reminds us of the "emptying" of ourselves at Mass in union with the sacrifice of Jesus. Turning away from pride and selfishness allows us to be more filled with the graces we get from the heavenly Father through Jesus

A Prayer Against Temptation

Behold me, O my God, at Your feet!
I do not deserve mercy,
but O my Redeemer, the blood which You have shed for me encourages me and obliges me to hope for it.
How often I have offended You, repented,
and yet have I again fallen into the same sin.
O my God, I wish to amend,
and in order to be faithful to You,
I will place all my confidence in You.
I will, whenever I am tempted, instantly have recourse to You. Until now, I have trusted in my own promises and resolutions and have neglected to recommend myself to You in my temptations.
This has been the cause of my repeated failures. From this day forward, be You, O Lord, my strength,
and this shall I be able to do all things,
for I can do all things in Him who strengthens me. Amen.

Perdona, Señor, nuestros pecados

Si este hombre fuera profeta, sabría qué clase de mujer
 Apparently, el anfitrión ante esta "escena" está en silencio, la soporta; pero sólo en apariencia. El fariseo "habla dentro de sí". Se muestra indulgente, intenta excusar a Jesús, atribuyendo así ignorancia el dejar hacer a la mujer: "Pobrecito, ¡no sabe bien quién es esa que lo toca!" Pero hace esto a precio de una acusación mucho más grave: Jesús no es un profeta, como muchos lo dicen, es mucho menos que el profeta esperado en los últimos tiempos; por lo tanto, usurpa la fama de que goza, se engaña y traiciona a la gente.

Jesús toma la palabra para dar su juicio sobre el actuar de la mujer y sobre los pensamientos del fariseo. Jesús, sobre todo, al que lo ha invitado le facilita la posibilidad de convencerse que Él es el profeta, puesto que ha leído los pensamientos su corazón; al mismo tiempo con, con la parábola, les prepara a todos a entender lo que está a punto de decir en defensa de la mujer, la cual, lavando sus pies, besándolos y rociándolos con perfume; ha realizado lo que el dueño de la casa no ha hecho: sus pecados, que son muchos, le han quedado perdonados, porque ha amado mucho.

Adoración al Santísimo Sacramento

Por gracia de Dios y autorización de nuestro amado Arzobispo J. Michael Miller se ha venido realizando los primeros Sábados del mes la piadosa práctica llamada Hora Santa. La Hora Santa es una práctica de origen divino otorgada por primera vez a Santa Margarita María de Alacoque. Me gustaría darte más información pero prefiero pedirte que tú te enteres mejor al leerla en la página devocionario.com También quiero aprovechar para agradecer al Padre Federico Buttner su presencia y compromiso en dicha celebración. Muchas gracias Padre!

La Palabra en tu vida

Jesús acepta a todos aquellos que se presentan ante Él con humildad. Señor Jesús que nos acerquemos a ti con un corazón arrepentido.

STEWARDSHIP IN OUR PARISH

Stewardship Profile of the Week

Has been coming to the cathedral for 30 years.

Serves as a consecrated virgin. Offers intercessory prayers, visits the sick and educates about sanctity of life issues.

Motto: "When I wake up in the morning, I say to myself, 'This is your day, Lord, use me at Your will.'"

Thanks, Lori, for your wisdom, fortitude, tenacity, fidelity, generosity and joy! You are a model of sanctity, faith and devotion for many.

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel we encounter the Pharisee who is rather inhospitable to Jesus. He doesn't seek Jesus' friendship. And yet the unknown woman who appears is quite eager to be where Jesus is and to show him her tremendous gratitude. She does some extraordinary things: She gets down by Jesus' feet, and, weeping, she wets his feet with her tears and wipes them with her hair! She even kisses his feet and anoints them with some perfumed oil. The woman lavishes her love and appreciation for Jesus. Christian stewards show their love for Jesus in tangible ways every day. Others don't really seek his friendship. Who are we more apt to be like in this Gospel story, the Pharisee or the grateful woman?

Project Advance - Project Advance is an annual diocesan appeal beginning in Spring. If you can help at the launch and follow-up, it would certainly be appreciated. Contact: Bertilla Watanabe Email: bertilla_hrc@shaw.ca

We are all sinners in need of God's love and mercy. And yet, we are offered His love and redemption. Christ shed His blood at Calvary for all of our sins! - "Lord have mercy on me. Cleanse me that I may be pure of heart."

There are certain things that just make Vancouver, Vancouver. Landmarks, nature, traditions. And of course, Business in Vancouver. In fact, from our perspective, so intertwined are we within the city dynamic, the two are essentially equal parts of the whole. It's easy, really: Business + Vancouver = Business in Vancouver.

We are business in Vancouver.
