DEAR PARISHIONERS and VISITORS:

The Catholic Encyclopaedia tells us that this solemnity of Trinity Sunday comes from the 14th century. Pope John XXII was inspired to establish this celebration of our loving union with each of the three divine persons . . . Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This is the greatest mystery in the universe: three distinct persons yet one divine nature.

The mystery is not meant to intimidate us but for us to enter into through Jesus, who is a divine person with a truly human nature and a truly divine nature. We share in the life and the love of the Blessed Trinity. We are invited to express our personal communion with the Trinity in our relations with our neighbor through sincere love, which is the foundation of peace, harmony and right relationship with all people.

There is much to ponder in this mystery of the blessed Trinity. That's why we begin and end many prayers by invoking the heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, in unity of the Holy Spirit.

Today and everyday let us savour the goodness and depth in our little prayer: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Fr. Galvon

El Espíritu guiará a los discípulos a la verdad

¿ Qué cosas podrán ser las palabras que Jesús tiene todavía que decir a sus discípulos ? Según los estudiosos de San Juan, el sentido más apropiado de esas palabras puede ser el siguiente: Jesús podría seguir hablándoles mucho sobre el Padre, sobre sí mismo, sobre la misión que está realizando y está a punto de terminar, sobre el sentido profundo de cuanto ha dicho y hecho durante su vida; pero sería por demás, ya que ahora no lo pueden comprender. El sentido profundo de todo cuanto dijo e hizo Jesús durante su ministerio, lo podrán conocer los discípulos con la llegada del Espíritu de Verdad y, con su luz, todo lo comprenderán.

La palabra en tu vida

Probablemente, la mayoría de los que asistimos a la Eucaristía no nos damos cuenta que en ella invocamos constantemente Dios Uno y Trino. Toda Santa Misa es una adoración al Padre, por el Hijo, en el Espíritu Santo. Señor Jesús, ayúdanos descubrir la riqueza de aquello que expresamos en nuestras oraciones.

"May the binding promise of the Lord Jesus be fulfilled: from here there must go forth the spark which will prepare the world for his final coming (Diary, 1732). This spark needs to be lighted by the grace of God. This fire of mercy needs to be passed on to the world!" - St. John Paul the Great

Canadians for Conscience - Archbishop Miller states that "Bill C-14 is problematic on many levels: ambiguous as to who qualifies for assisted suicide, lacking in conscience protection for institutions, and devoid of concrete financial support for palliative care alternatives to euthanasia and assisted suicide. Canadians shouldn't have to compromise their conscience. Legislation is expected to be in place by June 2016, so we need to act fast! STEWARDSHIP IN OUR PARISH

Stewardship Profile of the Week

Sergio

Has been coming to the cathedral for 4.5 years.

Altar server, sings in the Spanish-speaking 6:30 choir, and generally offers to help where needed.

Motto: "I am a nice guy—I'm generous."

Thanks, Sergio, for your dedicated service, and your gentle and joyful spirit.

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel Jesus talks about life with his Father and the Spirit. He tells his disciples that what belongs to the Father belongs to him, and that the Spirit will take from what is his and give it to them. Jesus helps us understand that the relationship between Father, Son and Spirit is one of perfect sharing and loving generosity. This shared life is the foundation for what we now understand as part of living life in the Trinity. The abundant generosity of those who are good stewards of the gifts entrusted to them gives us a glimpse into the love of the Triune God. Does the generosity with which we live our lives bear witness to God's extraordinarily generous life within us?
