MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

SHARE LENT

Opportunity for prayer, fasting & almsgiving.

The Bishop of Ravenna, Italy was one of the great preachers of the 5th century. In fact, his wonderful homilies and exhortations earned him the nickname “golden words” which is what “Chrysologus” means. This is but an excerpt from one of his Lenten sermons which is offered on Tuesday of the Third Week of Lent in the Office of Readings for the Church. It is entitled “Prayer knocks, fasting obtains, mercy receives.”

“There are three things, dear ones, by which faith stands firm, devotion remains constant, and virtue endures. They are prayer, fasting and mercy. Prayer knocks at the door, fasting obtains, mercy receives. Prayer, mercy and fasting: these three are one, and they give life to each other.

Fasting is the soul of prayer, mercy is the lifeblood of fasting. Let no one try to separate them; they cannot be separated. If you have only one of them or not all together, you have nothing. So if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ear to others you open God’s ear to yourself.

When you fast, see the fasting of others. If you want God to know that you are hungry, know that another is hungry. If you hope for mercy, show mercy. If you look for kindness, show kindness. If you want to receive, give. If you ask for yourself what you deny to others, your asking is a mockery.

Let this be the pattern for all men when they practice mercy: show mercy to others in the same way, with the same generosity, with the same promptness, as you want others to show mercy to you.

Therefore, let prayer, mercy and fasting be one single plea to God on our behalf, one speech in our defense, a threefold united prayer in our favour.

Let us use fasting to make up for what we have lost by despising others. Let us offer our souls in sacrifice by means of fasting. There is nothing more pleasing that we can offer to God, as the psalmist said in prophecy: A sacrifice to God is a broken spirit; God does not despise a bruised and humbled heart.

Offer your soul to God, make him an oblation of your fasting, so that your soul may be a pure offering, a holy sacrifice, a living victim, remaining your own and at the same time made over to God. Whoever fails to give this to God will not be excused, for if you are to give him yourself you are never without the means of giving.

To make these acceptable, mercy must be added. Fasting bears no fruit unless it is watered by mercy. Fasting dries up when mercy dries up. Mercy is to fasting as rain is to earth. However much you may cultivate your heart, clear the soil of your nature, root out vices, sow virtues, if you do not release the springs of mercy, your fasting will bear no fruit.

When you fast, if your mercy is thin your harvest will be thin; when you fast, what you pour out in mercy overflows into your barn. Therefore, do not lose by saving, but gather in by scattering. Give to the poor, and you give to yourself. You will not be allowed to keep what you have refused to give to others.”

YO SOY LA RESURRECCIÓN Y LA VIDA

El evangelista comienza introduciendo a los tres personajes que entrarán en juego: Lázaro, el enfermo; María y Martha, sus hermanas. Vivían en Betania, población muy cerca de Jerusalén. Con estos hermanos se hospedaba el Maestro cuando visitaba la Ciudad Santa. Las hermanas de Lázaro le mandaron decir a Jesús: Señor, el amigo a quien tanto quieres, está enfermo. Las hermanas no le piden a Jesús explícitamente un milagro, pero le insinúan que intervenga.

¡LÁZARO VUELVE A LA VIDA!

Este es el séptimo y último milagro de Jesús en el evangelio de San Juan. Con toda intención, las primeras palabras son para presentar al hombre enfermo: Lázaro personifica al hombre, herido por el pecado, que camina a la muerte, si Cristo no lo llama a la vida. Este milagro es solamente el anuncio de la verdadera resurrección, la cual no consiste en una prolongación de la vida, sino en la transformación de nuestra persona.

¿QUÉ CONMEMORAMOS EL PRÓXIMO DOMINGO?

La entrada de Jesús a Jerusalén, camino a su Pasión. Aún tenemos tiempo para cerrar nuestro tiempo de cuaresma de la mejor manera posible. Preparémonos en el conocimiento de la riqueza espiritual que nos ofrece la Semana Mayor, esto quiere decir la más importante del año litúrgico, y procuremos participar en ella en espíritu y en verdad, como nos lo indica el Maestro.

GÉNESIS

El Sábado pasado tuvimos la dicha de reunirnos 10 miembros de este grupo de laicos que sienten la inquietud de conocer mejor la carta de amor que Dios nos hace llegar hoy día a través de los siglos. Deseamos invitar y motivar a los católicos a participar en estas reuniones que se llevan a cabo los segundos y cuartos Sábados del mes. Contamos con Biblias en español para facilitar el estudio. ¡No faltes el próximo Sábado! Nos reunimos en el salón #2 del hall de catedral de 3:00 a 4:45 PM.
