MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-RECTOR

In the last two weeks we had two ordinations, one to the diaconate and one to the priesthood. In both cases three men were ordained and in both cases one of each will serve here at the Cathedral. We are especially grateful for the new ministry of Deacon Richard Chau and Father Juan Ignacio Lucca.

Deacon Richard was ordained on May 26 as a permanent deacon. Permanent deacons, unlike transitional deacons, can be married before their ordination. As a deacon he has been ordained to assist with the charitable work of the Church as recorded in Acts of the Apostles, chapter 6. The word "deacon" comes from the Greek word 'diákonos', which means 'servant'. Though all Christians by baptism are called to 'diakonia,' or service, deacons serve as a public sacramental sign of Christ in and at the service of the world. Like a priest, a deacon is a member of the clergy who shares in the ministry of the Bishop. Deacon Richard is now called to serve then, both at the Table of God, the Altar of the Church, but also the table of the poor and suffering. However, there are a few important differences between a priest and deacon. Deacons do not celebrate Mass, hear confessions, or anoint the sick; they extend the sacramental presence of Christ's service outside of the Church and into the secular world.

The service of the deacon is threefold. As a servant of charity, the deacon personally serves the poor, the aged, the sick, and the imprisoned, bringing the Gospel to all those in need. As a servant of the Word, deacons proclaim the Gospel and preach at liturgical celebrations. They provide catechetical instruction, adult faith formation, and sacramental preparation. And, as a Servant of the Sacraments deacons assist priests during Mass, administer baptisms, witness marriages, preside at funerals and wakes, Benedictions and lead community prayer services.

On June 3 we had 3 ordinations to the priesthood here at the Cathedral. Giovanni Schiesari, Francesco Voltaggio and Juan Lucca have very generously responded to the invitation of Jesus himself to serve Him and His Church as priests. However, we have to remember that their ordination is God's doing not ours; that their call is a pure gift, not an earned reward and that it is His Grace that lifts up our nature. By ordination these three men have the character of Christ the Priest, the Good Shepherd branded in their hearts as their very identity. These men now act in the person of Christ to lead us to him by the celebration of the Mass and the preaching of the Word.

However, priests do far more than celebrate Mass and pray all day. The life of a priest is busy, demanding and at times challenging; however, it is a very rewarding life. It's a threefold mission to teach, govern and sanctify. As teachers priest teach the faith. In the ministry of governing priests are pastors who manage parishes where they shepherd, guide and encourage the faithful. And finally, they are called to sanctify the world through the Liturgy and the faithful administration of the sacraments, encouraging all to live a life of holiness.

The Holy Spirit is active in the Church calling men to serve at His Altar and to help others fall in love with Jesus who is Love. We need to pray for more vocations to the priesthood and to the diaconate, we have to ask God for more shepherds that will keep us close to him.

- Fr. Pablo

LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD

Hoy celebramos un gran misterio de nuestra Fe Católica. El Señor nos vino a revelar que Dios es un Padre, que mandó a su Hijo para redimirnos y lo dos enviaron al Espíritu a santificarnos. Por ello debemos decir: Gloria al Padre, Gloria al Hijo y Gloria al Espíritu Santo. Toda nuestra vida cristiana se desarrolla con la presencia de la Trinidad. En el inicio de nuestra vida fuimos bautizados: en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo; y al final de nuestra vida, si tenemos la gracia de morir cristianamente, junto a nuestra cabecera se recitarán estas palabras: “sal alma cristiana, de este mundo: en el nombre del Padre, que te ha creado; del Hijo, que te ha redimido; y del Espíritu Santo, que te ha santificado”. En toda acción de la iglesia se encuentra la acción de la Santísima Trinidad.

LA TRINIDAD EN EL ANTIGUO TESTAMENTO

Para conocer y penetrar en el misterio de Dios, la Biblia procede pedagógicamente. El más grande misterio del cristianismo se prepara en el Antiguo Testamento con la vivencia del monoteísmo. Un Dios que actúa en la historia. Los profetas anunciaron la venida de un Mesías Salvador en los nuevos tiempos, cuando se lleve a cabo la nueva alianza y Dios reine en persona, sin personajes interpuestos.

EL SALUDO TRINITARIO

“La gracia de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, el amor del Padre y la comunión del Espíritu Santo”. . . El saludo Trinitario es la acentuación del amor de Dios, en el cual el hombre encuentra aquella alegría y aquel conjunto de valores y sentimientos que necesita su existencia. Dicho saludo atribuye a cada persona de la Trinidad los bienes de la salvación: gracia, amor y comunión. Y este saludo es una invitación a poner continuamente bajo el signo de Dios toda nuestra existencia humana y religiosa que se ha iniciado, desarrollado y se concluirá en el Nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Amén.
