MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

There are three wonderful things to ponder as we think about the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, which was celebrated on Friday, June 23.

First, there is thanksgiving for the wonders of God's personal love for each of us. Pope Pius XII in 1956 describes this love of Jesus:

"Since the heart of Christ overflows with divine and human love, and since it is abundantly rich with the treasures of all the graces our Redeemer acquired by his life, his sufferings and his death, it is truly the unfailing foundation of that love which his Spirit pours forth into all members of the Church"

We are reminded of the words of Jesus: "Come to me all of you who are weary and find life burdensome and I will refresh you." Matthew 11.28 The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus helps us to connect God's love to the hard and irksome duties of life. When they are done in love they become easier and more pleasant for all.

Second, there is reparation due to Jesus because we respond so poorly to his love, even those of us who have so many reasons for loving and thanking God.

Jesus loves us not only with the divine but also with a human love.

As truly human, Jesus had and has both the need and desire to love and to be loved. This Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus reminds us to endeavour to give Jesus the love for which he hungers.

Our prayers of gratitude and our little sacrifices offered to God out of love help us to make reparation to Jesus for ourselves and others for our indifference to the love he has for each of us with his Sacred Heart.

Third, our human love is purified and strengthened through the closeness of the Blessed Virgin Mary with Jesus. Pope John Paul II said this about the Immaculate Heart of Mary: "we want to pray to the mother of the Eternal Word so that the Heart of Jesus may never cease to burn within the horizon of the life of each one of us. We pray that He may reveal to us the Love that is never extinguished or diminished, the Love that is eternal. We ask that his love may give light to the darkness of our earthly night and give warmth to the coldness in our human heart."

This close union of Mary with Jesus, her Immaculate Heart with his Sacred Heart will be recognized across Canada on Sunday, July 2. The Canadian Bishops plan to consecrate Canada to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Archbishop Michael will do this at the 11:00 am Mass at Holy Rosary Cathedral on Sunday July 2. Be part of this special consecration celebration either by participating in this Mass or by having this as your prayer focus on this day.

No tengan miedo
 En la biblia las palabras “No tengan miedo” aparecen 366 veces. Una para cada día del año. El Señor nos recuerda que no tengamos miedo a los que matan el cuerpo, pero no pueden matar el alma y la seguridad de que Dios que se ha interesado también de las criaturas más pequeñas y débiles del universo, no puede abandonar a los discípulos de Jesús en el momento en el cual deben de dar testimonio de su fe. Para educar a los discípulos, Cristo les hace ver qué temores deben desterrar y qué es a lo que sí deben temer.

¿Cuáles son nuestros temores?
 Casi siempre son: las enfermedades, perder nuestro trabajo, la soledad, la pérdida de imagen. Son temores reales y explicables por causas reales. ¿Pero, son los únicos temores? El Señor señala otros temores que en nuestra valoración no cuentan gran cosa: no tomar la vida en serio, ni poner en la vida más empeño y en nuestras acciones más amor. El miedo debe consistir en no vivir como se debe, o en no confesar la fe, o en no asociarse a la obra salvadora de Dios.

Antídoto del temor
 Bien sabemos que en el Huerto de Getsemaní Jesús sintió temor de su inminente tortura y muerte, sin embargo, Nuestro Señor puso en manos de su Padre la entrega de Sí mismo para poder redimirnos. Tanto el temor como el enojo no es malo sentirlos pues son una defensa natural que Dios nos ha dado para ser cautos en aquello que nos puede dañar.

Existen un sin fin de grandes hombres y mujeres que supieron sobreponerse al temor, poniendo su fe en el hecho de que existe un ser supremo, nuestro Padre, quien nos ofrece al final de nuestra misión y vida su Amor Eterno e Incondicional, siempre y cuando nos sobrepongamos al temor para amarle y servirle en nuestros hermanos.
