MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

With the summer time now there are more opportunities to go for walks with family and friends. Walking together provides a good opportunity for exercise and physical health.

Walking together also provides a wonderful opportunity to pray together for the community in which we live.

Matthew 18:19-20 is a Scripture that speaks of cooperation.

“I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven. For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst.”

Many Christian groups promote prayer-walking. The purpose of prayer-walking is to seek God’s guidance, mercy and transforming power-both for the community and for ourselves as God’s servants in the community.

Here are some guidelines that may help you to understand more about prayer-walking and to encourage others to join you:

- Walk in groups of two or three
- You can pray silently letting your prayer partner(s) know what you were praying about or you can pray aloud in a quiet conversational voice
- If anyone asks that you are doing, be prepared to respond, “we are praying God’s blessings on this neighborhood. Is there any special way we can pray for you?”
- Some types of prayer for the neighborhood: discernment for what is the highest good for housing; blessing on people who are unemployed or underemployed; empathy for those who have brokenness and bitterness in their lives; personal conversion for those who are addicted to drugs or pornography; peace for those who can’t control anger . . .

- Afterwards, gather round a cup of coffee or tea to share your prayers, observations and experiences. What did you learn about the neighborhood of the? How did you see the hand of God working?

Prayer walking allows us to be active participants in the unfolding of God’s Kingdom here and now. Instead of blaming governments or this group or that group for the problems in our community, we can cooperate with the Holy Spirit so that” in everything God works for good” (Romans 8.28)

Tomen mi yugo

Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados ...Jesús invita a ir a Él, como la Sabiduría divina invita a los hombres a que se acercaran a ella para recibir sus enseñanzas (Prov 8, 32-35). El cansancio y la sobrecarga se refieren a la multitud de exigencias que los maestros de la Ley imponían a la gente. Jesús invita ahora a los pequeños, a los humildes a que lo sigan, que tomen sobre sí el yugo suave y la carga ligera de su doctrina -la doctrina del Reino-, opuesta al yugo y a la carga de la Ley, así como era expuesta por los fariseos. La intención de Dios no es el ocultar cosas a los que se creen sabios e inteligentes, escribas y fariseos, sino también revelar los tesoros de su Reino a quienes, menos letrados, están abiertos a su mensaje de una manera sincera y auténtica, por ello Jesús le agradece a su Padre el que tome en cuenta a quienes, se les hace creen, que no tienen acceso al Cielo.

Mi Padre puso todas las cosas en mis manos

Esta breve oración de Jesús nos revela sus pensamientos íntimos. En medio de los hombres no cesa de dar gracias a su Padre. Él es el Hijo que conoce al Padre como el Padre lo conoce a Él. Y por eso, siendo Dios mismo, puede y quiere atraernos a todos nosotros; no nos violenta desde fuera, sino que su influencia sanadora alcanza lo más profundo de nuestro corazón permitiéndonos que le sigamos con voluntaria docilidad.

Atrae más una gota de miel que un barril de hiel

¿Quién no agradece que se le hable de una forma amena, cordial y convincente? Aún tengo presentes las palabras de un sacerdote al referirse al sacramento de la reconciliación, nos dijo: “para cuando el penitente viene a confesar sus pecados ya ha sufrido un calvario pues conoce el peso de sus pecados, por eso evito ahondar su herida”. Este sacerdote vive la parábola del buen samaritano; unge las heridas espirituales, las atiende, y muy seguro, con sus oraciones nos ayuda a pagar la deuda de nuestras culpas; ayudándonos a liberarnos de cargas innecesarias y pesadas.
