MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

This Sunday is the launch of the 2018 Project Advance appeal for the Archdiocese and the Cathedral. We will see during the Sunday homily (hopefully all the computers and projectors will work happily together) the video produced by the Archdiocese to present the case for this appeal for financial support. As well, I will offer details for our planned use at the Cathedral of Project Advance proceeds.

Curious about Project Advance ?? Below is part of an explanation of Project Advance from the Archdiocesan website:

Project Advance is a diocesan-wide annual appeal which seeks to provide resources for both diocesan and individual parish needs. Project Advance began in 1980 with Archbishop Carney's vision of building a strong diocesan community. Its purpose was to provide the necessary resources to fund important capital projects within the Archdiocese. In later years, programs in the areas of education, social concerns and spiritual growth were added. Parishioners responded to this call for support with great generosity, and the fruits of their gifts can be seen and felt throughout the Archdiocese and in all parishes.

Project Advance provides the opportunity to promote the ideals of Christian stewardship, to become aware of our blessings, and to use them accordingly for the growth and benefit of God's Kingdom in the Archdiocese of Vancouver. Further, parishioners have become more aware of the needs beyond the boundaries of their own individual parishes. Project Advance enables them to share in reaching the goals of both the diocese and their own parish.

The Parish Rebate Program has assisted all parishes within the Archdiocese to fund their own local building or financial programs.

Each parish in the Archdiocese is assessed a financial goal for Project Advance. Once that goal has been reached, all additional gifts (less the parish's share of expenses) is returned to the parish for its own use. For example, parishes have used the rebate to pay down debts, expand their buildings, replace equipment, etc.

Some parishioners this week have received a letter in the mail about Project Advance with a letter, an information pamphlet and a pledge form. These pamphlets and pledge forms are also available this weekend in the entrance to the Cathedral. A team of volunteers from our Cathedral will be present this weekend and next weekend to assist you with any questions you may have about Project Advance.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration of a sacrificial gift to the Project Advance 2018 appeal. Live gratefully . . . give generously . . . support the faith.

Fr. Galvon

Benedicto XVI
 Regina Caeli, 2006-04-30

En el tiempo pascual la liturgia nos ofrece múltiples estímulos para fortalecer nuestra fe en Cristo resucitado. En este III domingo de Pascua, por ejemplo, san Lucas narra cómo los dos discípulos de Emaús, después de haberlo reconocido “al partir el pan”, fueron llenos de alegría a Jerusalén para informar a los demás de lo que les había sucedido. Y precisamente mientras estaban hablando, el Señor mismo se apareció mostrando las manos y los pies con los signos de la pasión. Luego, ante el asombro y la incredulidad de los Apóstoles, Jesús les pidió pescado asado y lo comió delante de ellos (cf. Lc 24, 35-43).

En este y en otros relatos se capta una invitación repetida a vencer la incredulidad y a creer en la resurrección de Cristo, porque sus discípulos están llamados a ser testigos precisamente de este acontecimiento extraordinario. La resurrección de Cristo es el dato central del cristianismo, verdad fundamental que es preciso reafirmar con vigor en todos los tiempos, puesto que negarla, como de diversos modos se ha intentado hacer y se sigue haciendo, o transformarla en un acontecimiento puramente espiritual, significa desvirtuar nuestra misma fe. “Si no resucitó Cristo —afirma san Pablo—, es vana nuestra predicación, es vana también vuestra fe” (1 Co 15, 14).
