MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

DO OUR PRAYERS AFFECT GOD?

August 22 is the special day in the Church calendar in which the church celebrates Mary, Queen of heaven and earth. Pope Pius XII instituted this celebration in 1954 as a helpful way to appreciate her Assumption into heaven. We contemplate her role in God's salvation plan with the Fifth Glorious Mystery of the Holy Rosary.

The opening prayer in the Mass of the Queenship of Mary says this: "Heavenly Father you have given us the mother of your Son to be our Queen and Mother. With the support of her prayers, may we come to share in the glory of your children in the kingdom of heaven."

A parishioner recently asked "do prayers, whether our prayers or the Blessed Virgin Mary's prayers, affect God? Do we really think we will change His mind?"

Fr. John Dietzen in his book Catholic Q & A, talks about how prayers are answered:

" it isn't so much a matter of changing God's mind as of recognizing that His providence and care for us include His awareness of our prayers, our desires and our longings. We're dealing here with at least two great mysteries. One is the mystery of God's knowledge of all things, along with His unconditional love and care, His faithful unfailing tenderness in our regard.

The other is the mystery of human free will, which means there's some way men and women work together with God in shaping their individual lives and destinies. Ours is a genuine personal freedom, not just a game of let's pretend, a freedom which involves above all a personal relationship with God. It includes sharing with Him our joys and sorrows, our hopes and disappointments, our wonders and our regrets . . . all of this is prayer.

This is of course why Jesus urges us so often to pray fervently and why he prayed so frequently himself. What the heavenly Father plans and what He does depends very much on what we show is important to us in our prayers.

Prayer and, above all, a habitual prayer attitude before God affects us deeply so that we are not the same persons we would be if we did not pray. "

We can be sure that the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, for each of us and with each of us, smooth the path for each of us to share in the life and love of God.

Fr. Galvon

Benedicto XVI, papa

Ángelus (16-08-2009): Transformación recíproca

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, lo que sucedió en María vale, de otras maneras, pero realmente, también para cada hombre y cada mujer, porque a cada uno de nosotros Dios nos pide que lo acojamos, que pongamos a su disposición nuestro corazón y nuestro cuerpo, toda nuestra existencia, nuestra carne —dice la Biblia—, para que él pueda habitar en el mundo. Nos llama a unirnos a él en el sacramento de la Eucaristía, Pan partido para la vida del mundo, para formar juntos la Iglesia, su Cuerpo histórico. Y si nosotros decimos sí, como María, es más, en la medida misma de este “sí” nuestro, sucede también para nosotros y en nosotros este misterioso intercambio: somos asumidos en la divinidad de Aquel que asumió nuestra humanidad.

La Eucaristía es el medio, el instrumento de esta transformación recíproca, que tiene siempre a Dios como fin y como actor principal: él es la Cabeza y nosotros los miembros, él es la Vid y nosotros los sarmientos. Quien come de este Pan y vive en comunión con Jesús dejándose transformar por él y en él, está salvado de la muerte eterna: ciertamente muere como todos, participando también en el misterio de la pasión y de la cruz de Cristo, pero ya no es esclavo de la muerte, y resucitará en el último día para gozar de la fiesta eterna con María y con todos los santos.

Este misterio, esta fiesta de Dios, comienza aquí abajo: es misterio de fe, de esperanza y de amor, que se celebra en la vida y en la liturgia, especialmente eucarística, y se expresa en la comunión fraterna y en el servicio al prójimo. Roguemos a la santísima Virgen que nos ayude a alimentarnos siempre con fe del Pan de vida eterna para experimentar ya en la tierra la gloria del cielo.
