MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

World Mission Sunday is celebrated on Sunday October 21 this year. Because of our baptism into the life and love of Jesus, each of us shares in the mission of the Church. Jesus described that mission of the Church as He ascended into heaven: “Go, therefore, make disciples of all nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you.” (Matthew 28.19)

The Canadian Bishops have stated that “all parishes should take seriously their responsibility of all believers to spread the Gospel.” They suggested that prayer and acts of self-denial to deepen that prayer be offered for the missionary work of God’s people.

As we appreciate the Church’s mission and the call for each of us to be part of it, may we financially support with generosity the World Mission Day second collection. The Vatican has a group that spreads out the proceeds of this special collection to countries around the world to support missionary work. Canada receives some of this collection for our parishes in the North and in isolated places.

St. Paul encouraged Christians “to pray that the Lord’s message may spread quickly, and be received with honour.” (2 Thessalonians 3.1). Our celebration of World Mission Sunday helps us to do that. May we promote missions every other day as well for God’s glory and the salvation of every soul!

In our Catholic culture, October is the month of the Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We are encouraged as individuals, families and parishes to pray in this way.

Some people have asked why we offer the Rosary near Mass time.

One reason, of course, is that there’s more people that are in the Cathedral around that time. Praying together reminds us that God saves us through our participation in the faith community and not as independent free lancers.

Another reason is explained by Bishop Peter J. Elliott, a very wise liturgical expert. He explains that the Rosary is not primarily a Marian devotion. He says “it is a Christ centered method of meditation in the Marian form.” He further explains that the Rosary takes us through the saving mysteries i.e. the Incarnation, the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ with and through His mother Mary.

Now in the Eucharist, the mysteries of joy, sorrow and glory are made present in the Lord’s sacrifice. So Bishop Elliott says that the Rosary in itself “can be related to the Eucharist.” Our heart is warmed up to cherish the service and sacrifice of Jesus as we pray the Rosary together.

Fr. Galvon

PRAYER FOR WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

WE PRAY TO THE LORD our pledge to preach with our youth the Gospel to everyone:

You call us to preach your Good News to all nations in every situation!

Inspired by you, we come out from our churches and our houses to preach the Good News. Inspired by our youth, their dreams and their questions, we are keen about your Mission.

Together, we will build a new Earth, which will be more just, more in solidarity, and more fraternal.

We will build relationships marked by trust, sharing, and openness to other people.

We will not erect walls of division, but we will build bridges to connect your large human family.

R. Amen

When you make his life and offering for sin, he shall see his offspring and shall prolong his days.

Responsorial            Psalm 33
R. Fill us with your love, O lord, that we may rejoice and be glad.

Second Reading        Hebrews 4.14-16
Let us approach the throne of grace with boldness.

Gospel                    Mark 10.35-45
The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.

MASS REFLECTION

The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. (Mark 10:45)

It has been estimated that Internet start-up companies try to squeeze ten years' worth of growth in just three years. Imagine the grueling amount of work the entire team would have to perform over that time. Imagine the sacrifices each team member would have to make in order to make the company a success.

Now imagine if, one day, one of the employees of such a company stood up in a meeting and asked the founder to make him a key executive over everyone else. Imagine him asking for the corner office and all the other perks that come with such a position. How do you think his coworkers would react? They had all worked hard! Why should this fellow get special treatment?

This scenario is a bit of a modern take on today's Gospel reading, as James and John ask Jesus to guarantee them special seating when he comes into his kingdom. All the disciples had worked hard and followed Jesus faithfully, so why should these two be raised up above the others?

It seems that James and John missed three important points. First, they didn't understand that Jesus was destined to be a heavenly king, not an earthly one. They missed that he wanted to build a kingdom focused on mercy and love, not power and domination.

Second, they didn't realize that Jesus had come to die, not to reign. He had come, not to be served like royalty, but to serve his people—to the point of giving up his very life for them. Finally, they missed the point that this isn't a competition. Everyone who serves Jesus will be given a seat of honor in heaven!

Like the apostles, you, too, are part of Jesus' team. So think about your role in his organization. How is he calling you to give your life in service to him and his kingdom?

"Father, give me a servant's heart. Lord, I want to dedicate myself to making sure that everyone in your kingdom succeeds."
