MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

The Catholic Church presents to us in November the themes of death, judgement, heaven and hell. This is done to both encourage and challenge us in our faith journey.

From Scripture and the Catholic Catechism, we can get an idea of what happens after death. The staff from Catholic Answers wrote the following article in the book THE ESSENTIAL CATHOLIC SURVIVAL GUIDE (by Catholic Answers Inc., 2005, page 250).

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) defines purgatory as a “purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven”, which is experienced by those “who die in God’s grace and friendship but still imperfectly purified” (CCC. 1030). It notes that “this final purification of the elect... is entirely different from the punishment of the damned (CCC. 1031).

The purification is necessary because, as Scripture teaches, nothing unclean will enter the presence of God in heaven (cf. Rev. 21, 27) and, while we may die with our mortal sins forgiven, there can still be many impurities in us, specifically venial sins and the temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven.

When we die, we undergo what is called the particular, or individual, judgment. Scripture says that “it is appointed for men to die once and after that comes judgment” (Heb. 9, 27). We are judged instantly, and receive our reward, for good or bad. We know at once what our final destiny will be. At the end of time, when Jesus returns, there will be the general judgment to which the Bible refers, for example, in Matthew 25, 31 - 32: “when the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.” In this general judgment, all our sins will be publicly revealed (cf. Luke 12, 2 - 5).

(May the reality of accountability for our sins motivate us to humbly turn to God each day with prayer, penance and sacramental life in order to access God’s loving mercy for ourselves and others.)

On Sunday November 18, there will be a second collection after Holy Communion for the Archdiocese of Vancouver Home Missions. The funds from this collection are used by the Archdiocese to assist small, isolated Catholic faith communities in the Archdiocese with resources for their worship services. Thank you for your prayers and support ...

CATHEDRAL NEWS

NOVEMBER ROSARIES AT THE CATHEDRAL

During the month of November, the Rosaries we say together at the Cathedral before the 12:10 PM and the 5:10 PM Mass will be offered for our loved ones who have died. There will be no remembrance sheets to sign – simply bring the names of your deceased loved ones to the Lord in your mind and heart as you join in the recitation of the Rosary.

SACRED MUSIC FOR ADVENT

On Friday, November 30 at 7:30 PM join us for a special concert performed by the Cathedral's own musicians: organist Denis Bédard and the Cathedral Choir, assistant organist Catherine Walsh and the Holy Rosary Women's Choir, the Contemporary Choir with director Chito Lacsina, and the Spanish Mass Choir with director Alejandro Frias.

ICEL CHANT MASS AT THE CATHEDRAL

Archbishop Miller has asked that all in the Archdiocese learn a common mass setting. The ICEL Chant Mass has been chosen as it is already being sung in many English speaking countries around the world. At the Cathedral, we will sing it on November 18 so that the congregation becomes familiar with it. It is also in our Adoremus Hymnal: pages 17, 19, 49 and 123.

NEXT BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS, DECEMBER 15

The next baptism preparation class will take place on Saturday, December 15 at 10 AM in Holy Rosary Hall. Please call the office to register.

NEWMAN BALL, NOVEMBER 24

The Newman Club of UBC invites you to its annual fundraising Ball at Holy Rosary Hall (650 Richards St.) on Nov. 24, 6 PM. Enjoy delicious food, elegant dancing, and great company. For more info and tickets contact: newmanclububc@gmail.com.

ARCHDIOCESAN NEWS

ORDINATIONS FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE, DEC. 8

On Saturday December 8 at 12 PM join Archbishop Miller at the Cathedral as he ordains Deacon Guy Zidago to the priesthood and Mr. Felix Min to the diaconate. Please continue to pray for vocations in our archdiocese.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Join us for our monthly Mass of Remembrance as we pray for our family members that have passed away this month. Sunday, Nov. 25, 12:30 PM and 2:30 PM in the Evangelist Chapel at Gardens of Gethsemani.

PRO-LIFE MASS AND PRAYER VIGIL

Join us for a peaceful, prayerful vigil for unborn children and their parents on Saturday, Dec. 1. Mass is at 9 AM at St. Patrick's, Vancouver, followed by the Rosary. For upcoming dates visit: <https://rcav.org/pro-life-mass-and-prayer-vigil>

RESTORE THE BEAUTY: WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

Save the date! In place of our annual women's retreat, we've decided to have a women's conference next year. The normal retreat date coincides with Easter and since we were unable to find workable dates at Rockridge Canyon, we thought this would be a fantastic opportunity to host a larger event locally, but with the same powerful and beautiful elements of our women's retreat. A venue and location in Surrey makes it easily accessible for more women to attend and experience this beautiful event. Event will be from Saturday, May 3, 7 - 10 PM to Friday, May 4, 9 AM - 9 PM. More details will be shared soon at www.liferestoration.ca/womensconference/

MASS REFLECTION

Of that day or hour, no one knows. (Mark 13:32)

When Jesus said that “no one knows” when the Second Coming would happen, was he saying that even he didn’t know? It sure seems that way. Maybe he was reminding us that he had submitted to the limitations of being human, just like us. Yes, he was fully divine, but he was also fully human. And that entailed certain limitations. This is why Luke tells us that Jesus was always increasing in wisdom “before God and man” (Luke 2:52).

Today, however, Jesus knows when he will come again. The problem is, we still don’t know!

Repeatedly throughout history, people have tried to predict the end of the world. St. Paul thought it was just around the corner. St. Hippolytus of Rome and St. Irenaeus of Lyon thought it would happen in AD 500. John Wesley, the first Methodist, thought the end would come in 1836. Many Christian leaders—and no shortage of psychics—have also weighed in. Not surprisingly, many of these people then recalculated the dates after their first predictions didn’t come true, only to have their followers disappointed again.

Some believers are more cautious. They tell us that we will see specific clues when the time is near. They point to certain signs—a war in the Middle East, a drought in Africa, earthquakes in Peru, or some other disaster. When those signs occur, it means that Jesus is very near.

Still, no human being knows when Jesus will come. It could be today. It may not be for thousands of years.

St. Francis had a different take on the subject. Once, when he was working in the garden, a friar asked, “What would you be doing now if you knew that Jesus was coming back today?” Francis replied, “I would keep hoeing my garden.” Francis knew he was trying his best to be ready, and there was nothing more he could do.

The point is, Jesus will come. So our best answer is the same as it has always been: be ready.

“Come, Lord Jesus!”
