ST. PATRICK & ST. JOSEPH: PERSERVERING FOR THE LORD

Saint Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, had never planned to go to Ireland. Yet, he went there twice. The first was against his will and the second was in accord with God’s will.

He was born in Britain and around the year 400 was kidnapped by pirates and sold into slavery in Ireland. There, he experienced hunger, humiliation, and isolation. It was there that he also began to pray. He discovered God in a profound way and became spiritually strong. After six years he escaped and went back home. But he never forgot the people of Ireland.

Eventually he became a priest and then a missionary bishop to Ireland. All his experiences shaped him into a saint and a very effective missionary. He faced much opposition from outside and inside the Church so he wrote his book Confession to set the record straight about what God had done for him. The prayer Breastplate of St Patrick is attributed to him. In this prayer he asks Christ to be in front of him, behind him, at his right and at his left, beneath him and above him. Christ is his armor, his air and his light. So Christ is for each of us.

(adapted from Fr. Joseph Krempa’s book Captured Fire)

The litany of Saint Joseph recognizes his many roles in God’s plan of salvation:

Illustrious descendant of David, light of the patriarchs, spouse of the Mother of God, model of the working person, guardian of virgins, consoler of the afflicted, hope of the sick, patron of the dying, terror of demons, protector of the Holy Church.

One way for us to be closer to St. Joseph is to think about his example of faith, hope and love.

Saint Joseph was a truly humble man so he was able to remain steadfast in his faith through every trial. Whether it was the unexpected pregnancy of Mary, the persecution of King Herod, or the loss of the child Jesus in the Jerusalem temple, Joseph knew how to see God in everything that happened.

Saint Joseph’s hope grew as he awaited the fulfillment of God’s promises of Redemption. This no doubt came into play as he saw the child Jesus grow into manhood. Joseph sensed the unfolding of the mission of Jesus as the Messiah.

Saint Joseph had a very sincere love for Jesus and Mary and it became deeper every day. Fr Fernandez writes that “no one will ever love them as he loved them.” Joseph demonstrated his love for Jesus and Mary in his family life, in his prayer and in the ordinary events of his working day.

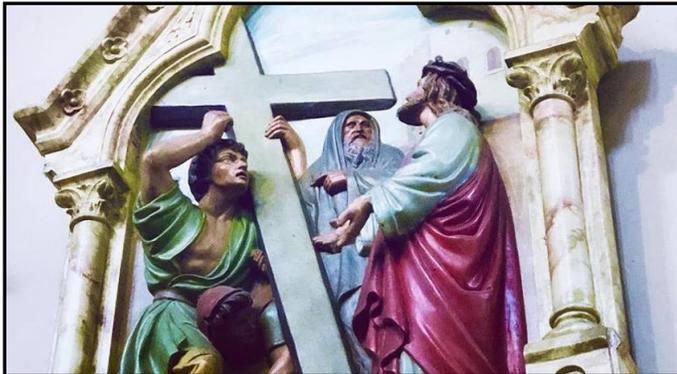

Pope Paul VI in 1969 spoke about the importance of the sanctification of daily life, the sanctification which each person must acquire according to his or her own state, and one which can be promoted according to a model (St Joseph) who is accessible to all people:

“St Joseph is the model of those humble ones that Christianity raises up to great destinies . . . He is the proof that in order to be a good and genuine follower of Jesus there’s no need of great things – it is enough to have the common, simple and humble virtues but they need to be true and authentic”

Let us remember how God worked in the life of St Joseph. God will work in us too as we seek to cooperate with Him as Joseph did:

Blessed Joseph, happy man whose privilege it was, not only to see and hear that God who many a king has longed to see, yet saw not, longed to hear, yet heard not; but also to carry him in your arms and kiss him, to clothe him and watch over him! Pray for us, blessed Joseph...

SUNDAY MASS

II SUNDAY IN LENT
MASS READINGS

FIRST READING Genesis 15, 5 - 12, 17 - 18

You are to be a people holy to the Lord your God.

RESPONSORIAL Psalm 27

R. The Lord is my light and my salvation.

SECOND READING Philippians 3, 17 - 4, 1

Christ will transform our humble bodies, conforming them to his glorious body.

GOSPEL Luke 9, 28b - 36

While Jesus prayed, the appearance of his face changed.

MASS REFLECTION

Look up. (Genesis 15:5)

All three readings today urge us to do one thing: fix our eyes on heaven. In the first reading, God told Abraham to look at the night sky. "Count the stars, if you can. Just so . . . shall your descendants be," he promised (Genesis 15:5). Abraham, who was already advanced in years and childless, would somehow become the father of many nations.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that "our citizenship is in heaven" and not in this world (Philippians 3:20). He tells us that we belong there, and that we should keep that truth in mind so that we can "stand firm in the Lord."

And in the Gospel, Jesus gives Peter, James, and John a vision of his heavenly glory. He knew he was headed for the cross and that his death would shake them to the core. So he gave them this vision to strengthen their faith and encourage them, even as they saw him arrested, tortured, and killed.

Jesus wants us to fix our eyes on heaven as well. He wants us to focus on his glory and his promises as we pray each morning. He knows that if we do, we'll give the Holy Spirit the opportunity to write these promises on our hearts. We'll let the Spirit show us Jesus' love and mercy so that we can stay close to him during the day.

Here are some key promises you can fix your eyes on. First, God promises to keep his covenant with you, just as he kept his covenant with Abraham. Second, Jesus promises that your citizenship is in heaven (Philippians 3:20). You belong to him! And third, the Holy Spirit promises that if you fix your eyes on Jesus in prayer every day, you'll begin to see him more clearly, just as the apostles caught a glimpse of him at his transfiguration.

Choose one of these promises today, and dwell on it. Repeat it over and over. Fix your heart on the way it reveals God's love for you. Look up to heaven, and let your heart be filled with all its goodness and grace!

"Jesus, help me to keep my eyes fixed on you today."
