MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

The Way of the Resurrection

There is a wonderful devotion in the Easter season that complements the Way of the Cross in Lent. This devotion of the Way of the Resurrection helps us as we move along towards the Ascension and Pentecost to appreciate all the activity of the Risen Lord to encourage and challenge His disciples to have total faith in Him:

1. Jesus is raised from the dead.
2. The finding of the empty tomb - Mary refers 3 x to grave robbers but ironically God Himself robbed the grave.
3. Mary Magdalene meets the risen Jesus.
4. Jesus appears on the road to Emmaus.
5. Jesus is known in the breaking of bread.
6. Jesus appears to the disciples in Jerusalem.
7. Jesus gives the disciples his peace and the power to forgive sins.
8. Jesus strengthens the faith of Thomas.
9. Jesus appears by the Sea of Tiberias and feeds the apostles 153 fish at the charcoal fire .
10. Jesus forgives Peter and commands him to feed His sheep.
11. Jesus commissions the disciples upon the mountain.
12. The Ascension of Jesus.
13. Mary and the disciples wait in prayer.
14. The Holy Spirit descends at Pentecost.

Heavenly Father, around Your throne the Saints sing Your praise forever. Their glory fills us with joy, and their communion with us in the Church gives us inspiration and strength as we move along our journey of faith in Jesus each day.

We ask Your blessing in the name of Jesus, our Risen Lord. Amen

MAY THE MONTH OF MARY

A few days ago the month of May began, which for many Christian communities is the Marian month par excellence. As such, down the centuries it has become one of the best-loved popular devotions and has been increasingly appreciated by Pastors as a favourable occasion for preaching, catechesis and community prayer.

After the Second Vatican Council, which emphasized the role of Mary Most Holy in the Church and in the history of salvation, Marian devotion underwent a profound renewal. And the month of May, coinciding at least in part with the Easter Season, is a most favourable time for explaining the figure of Mary as a Mother who accompanies the community of disciples united in prayer in expectation of the Holy Spirit (cf. Acts 1: 12-14).

This month can thus be an opportunity to return to the faith of the primitive Church and, in union with Mary, to understand that our mission also today is to proclaim and witness with courage and joy to the Crucified and Risen Christ, the hope of humanity.

- H.H. Pope Benedict XVI

SUNDAY MASS

V SUNDAY IN EASTER
MASS READINGS

FIRST READING Acts 14.21b-27
They called the Church together and related all that God had done with them.

RESPONSORIAL Psalm 145
R. I will bless your name for ever, my king And my God

SECOND READING Revelation 21.1-5a
God will wipe every tear from their eyes.

GOSPEL John 13.1, 31-33a, 34-35
I will give you a new commandment, that you love one another.

MASS REFLECTION

Love one another. (John 13:34)

That seems pretty easy, doesn't it? Be nice, take care of the people you're close to, maybe give some money to the poor. But is this all that Jesus means? Or does he have a different idea? Let's look at the context of this command to get some idea.

Jesus has just washed his disciples' feet, and Judas has left on his mission to betray him. Jesus knows he will not be with his friends much longer as the cross begins to loom large in his mind. So when he tells his disciples to love one another as he loved them, he is calling them to a love that mirrors his own love—a love that is selfless and sacrificial, a love that flows from God's unconditional love for each person on earth.

This way of loving would set apart Jesus' followers because it is so different from the way most people think of love. Jesus' love washed the feet of his betrayer. It forgave those who nailed him to the cross. It reached across cultural lines to embrace Samaritans and Gentiles. It extended healing to the marginalized and political rivals.

It's this kind of love that won people over in the first century: they saw believers caring for outcasts like widows and orphans and holding their possessions in common. But it has also won people over throughout history: people saw Christians nursing plague victims in the Middle Ages, believers risking their safety to hide Jews during World War II, and more recently, Pope St. John Paul II forgiving the man who shot him.

Awe for the saints who loved like this might make you think it's impossible for you, but this call to love isn't just for the saints. Jesus has touched your life, and he lives in you, just as he did the saints. How did they do it? They experienced Jesus' love firsthand, and it changed the way they loved the people around them. That very same thing can happen to you.

"Today, Jesus, teach me to love as you love."
