MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

Saint Francis de Sales in his book, INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE, states that the coming of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost was not an isolated event in the life of the Church. According to Saint Francis de Sales, the Holy Spirit continually sanctifies the Church as well as each of her members.

The Holy Spirit does this work through tugging on our individual hearts and by inspirations affecting the life of the Church. The effect of this work is "to strengthen our hearts of his blessings, with his care and fatherly love, to move us, impel us, and draw us to holy virtues, to heavenly love, to good resolutions..."

Our response to this loving influence should include gratitude for the truth that the Holy Spirit brings us, as well as devoted prayer with the Holy Spirit.

We do well to ponder in prayer the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and the many fruits of the Holy Spirit.

The seven gifts are described in the book of Isaiah 11.1-2. They refer to the characteristics of the promised Messiah. The Holy Spirit is tasked to bring us these gifts to help us carry on the work of Jesus.

The GIFT OF UNDERSTANDING: we come to have a deeper knowledge of the mysteries of faith. Saint Thomas Aquinas says that, thanks to this gift, God is glimpsed from here below.

The GIFT OF KNOWLEDGE: enables us to understand the world in the light of God's plan of salvation... Everything good thing comes from God and is directed back to God.

The GIFT OF WISDOM: this gives us a deeper and more joyful knowledge of God and his mysteries... Wisdom helps us to find God in everyday life.

The GIFT OF COUNSEL: this gift helps us to have a true conscience and to see the possible consequences of our actions... we get help to discern and to make good decisions pleasing to God.

The GIFT OF PIETY: this gives helps us to adore God's divine majesty... we are led to show loving-kindness to others.

The GIFT OF FORTITUDE: gives the soul the necessary strength to overcome obstacles and to practice the good habits of the human heart like courage, patience and perseverance.

The GIFT OF HOLY FEAR: when the holy fear of God is lost, then our sense of sin becomes weak and we can become lukewarm, careless or mediocre in our love of God.

When we cooperate with all of these gifts from the Holy Spirit our Christian life shows much fruit. St. Paul in the letter to the Galatians (5.22-23) describes some of these fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, self control, faithfulness, modesty, chastity...

Pope Paul VI reminded the Vatican II Council in 1964 how Our Lady collaborated actively with the Holy Spirit in the souls of the apostles at the first Pentecost. We can be sure that the Blessed Virgin Mary, as Mother of the Church, will pray for us and help us also to collaborate effectively with the Holy Spirit in our lives.

- Fr. Galvon

MASS REFLECTION

Today, we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, in which the liturgy has us relive the birth of the Church, according to what St. Luke narrates in the book of the Acts of the Apostles (2, 1-13). Fifty days after Easter, the Holy Spirit descended on the community of disciples - "with one accord devoted themselves to prayer" - gathered with "Mary, the mother of Jesus" and with the Twelve Apostles (Act 1, 14; 2, 1). We can therefore say that the Church had its solemn beginning with the descent of the Holy Spirit.

In this extraordinary event we find the essential and qualifying characteristics of the Church: the Church is one, like the community at Pentecost, who were united in prayer and "concordant": "were of one heart and soul." (Acts 4, 32)

The Church is holy, not by her own merits, but because, animated by the Holy Spirit, she keeps her gaze on Christ, to become conformed to him and to his love.

The Church is catholic, because the Gospel is destined for all peoples, and for this, already at the beginning, the Holy Spirit made her speak all languages.

The Church is apostolic, because, built upon the foundation of the Apostles, she faithfully keeps their teaching through the uninterrupted chain of episcopal succession. What is more, the Church by her nature is missionary, and from the day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit does not cease to move her along the ways of the world to the ends of the earth and to the end of time.

This reality, which we can verify in every epoch, is already anticipated in the Book of Acts, where the Gospel passage from the Hebrews to the pagans, from Jerusalem to Rome, is described. Rome represents the pagan world, and hence, all people who are outside of the ancient People of God. Actually, Acts concludes with the arrival of the Gospel to Rome...

Dear brothers and sisters, the first Pentecost took place when Mary Most Holy was present amid the disciples in the Upper Room in Jerusalem and prayed. Today, too, let us entrust ourselves to her maternal intercession, so that the Holy Spirit may descend in abundance upon the Church in our day, fill the hearts of all the faithful and enkindle in them the fire of his love."

Pope Benedict XVI,

Regina Caeli, May 27, 2007, www.vatican.va
