DEDICATION OF THE CATHEDRAL

The dedication of a church is meant to set apart a building for the divine worship of the Church. Almost everything we use in the worship of the Church is blessed and consecrated and taken out of the common and secular use to be used only for the worship of the Church: the sacraments, but above all the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. This is why we dedicate churches.

The ceremony of dedication is an ancient ceremony in which the bishop anoints the walls of the church, blesses the church and consecrates the altar. For the anointing and consecration of the church the bishop uses Holy Chrism, the oil consecrated by him on Holy Thursday. This is the oil used at baptisms, ordinations and to bless the most sacred things. This is done in churches to remind us that a dedicated place is indeed a holy place. When we are baptized we are reminded that we are united to Christ in His life and death, we too are set apart to become the Mystical Body of Christ which is the Church.

In the ancient dedication ceremony the bishop would trace with his crozier the Greek and Latin alphabets, the elements of the two principal languages in which Scripture and Tradition. For this there were two lines of ashes running transversely from end to end of the church and crossing in the center of the nave. This was done because sacred science comes to us from doctrinal authority hence the alphabet, on ashes because it is understood only by the humble, and a cross because it is all our Faith is summed up in Jesus Crucified.

Our Cathedral was not dedicated until 1953, even though it opened in 1900. This was because Catholic churches could only be consecrated once they were free from debt. The ceremony of dedication was celebrated by Archbishop William M. Duke. There were thirty-five bishops from across Canada and the United States for the dedication. The dedication also coincided with Archbishop Duke's golden and silver jubilees of his priestly ordination and consecration as a bishop, respectively.

Why then, do we remember this event? It helps us remember those who came before us and the great sacrifice those who built this beautiful church. We should also think on the privilege we have because we have this beautiful place of worship... how many in the world are not as fortunate. For us this also means that we have to work to keep this place for the future, to take care of it, to help in its upkeep when we can, and to pray for the priests and community who call this church our home.

SUNDAY MASS

XXVII SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
MASS READINGS

FIRST READING Habakkuk 1.2-3; 2.2-4

The righteous one lives by his faith.

RESPONSORIAL Psalm 95

R. O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord. Do not harden your hearts!

SECOND READING 2 Timothy 1.6-8, 13-14

Do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord.

GOSPEL Luke 17.5-10

If you had faith.

MASS REFLECTION

If it delays, wait for it. (Habakkuk 2:3)

Nobody likes to wait. Whether we are waiting for a traffic light to turn green or awaiting the birth of a child, time seems to drag. Even if we tell ourselves that our wait will soon be over, we still feel eager for everything to hurry up.

This must be how the prophet Habakkuk felt as he looked out at his beloved city, Jerusalem. The Babylonian army had defeated Egypt, and the people knew they were next on the list. Added to the threat of war was the moral and religious state of the city. Weak kings continued to make and break alliances with pagan nations, worship of false gods was on the rise, and the rich and powerful continued to exploit the poor and weak. "How long, O Lord?" Habakkuk pleaded. He felt surrounded by "destruction and violence . . . ; strife, and clamorous discord" (1:2, 3). And God seemed to be nowhere in sight.

You know how that feels, don't you? A child has turned away from the Church, and you long to see her find her way home. A friend is not returning your calls, and you wonder what you did wrong. Violence against the weak, the unborn, and the foreigner is increasing, and you don't know if God will ever put an end to it. Sometimes it just hurts to have to wait for a resolution.

If this describes you, then know that God has a word for you—the same word he gave to Habakkuk: "The vision still has its time" (2:3). God's vision, his plan, is still unfolding. He is not standing by helplessly, watching you struggle. Try your best to hold on; put your faith in his love and his mercy. Even if it seems to be taking forever, don't give up. God still loves you. He will always love you.

God promised Habakkuk that those who hold onto their faith in him "shall live" (Habakkuk 2:4). That includes you.

"Lord Jesus, I believe in your love and mercy. Come and teach me how to wait in faith!"
