MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

The Catholic Church presents to us in November the themes of death, judgment, heaven and hell. This is done to both encourage and challenge us in our faith journey.

From Scripture and the Catholic Catechism, we can get an idea of what happens after death. The staff from Catholic Answers wrote the following article in the book THE ESSENTIAL CATHOLIC SURVIVAL GUIDE (by Catholic Answers Inc., 2005, page 250).

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) defines purgatory as a “purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven”, which is experienced by those “who die in God’s grace and friendship but still imperfectly purified” (CCC. 1030). It notes that “this final purification of the elect... is entirely different from the punishment of the damned (CCC. 1031).

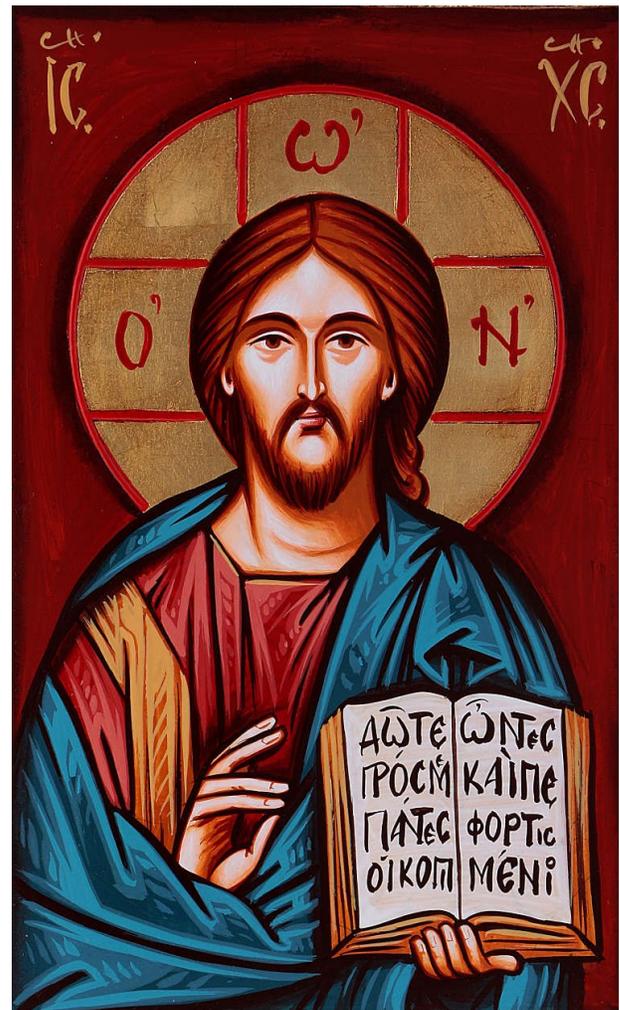

The purification is necessary because, as Scripture teaches, nothing unclean will enter the presence of God in heaven (cf. Rev. 21, 27) and, while we may die with our mortal sins forgiven, there can still be many impurities in us, specifically venial sins and the temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven.

When we die, we undergo what is called the particular, or individual, judgment. Scripture says that “it is appointed for men to die once and after that comes judgment” (Heb. 9, 27). We are judged instantly, and receive our reward, for good or bad. We know at once what our final destiny will be. At the end of time, when Jesus returns, there will be the general judgment to which the Bible refers, for example, in Matthew 25, 31 -32: “when the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.” In this general judgment, all our sins will be publicly revealed (cf. Luke 12, 2 -5).

(May the reality of accountability for our sins motivate us to humbly turn to God each day with prayer, penance and sacramental life in order to access God’s loving mercy for ourselves and others.)

On Sunday November 17, there will be a second collection after Holy Communion for the Archdiocese of Vancouver Home Missions. The funds from this collection are used by the Archdiocese to assist small, isolated Catholic faith communities in the Archdiocese with resources for their worship services. Thank you for your prayers and support...

RESPONSORIAL Psalm 98

R. The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

GOSPEL Luke 21, 5 - 19

MASS REFLECTION

"So that you might imitate us."

(II Thessalonians 3:9)

Have you ever heard of mirror neurons? They're those tiny little cells in our brains that fire up whenever we're around someone else. Sometimes very faintly, but other times with great force, these neurons prompt us to imitate whomever we are with. When we see someone happy or sad or angry, it's our mirror neurons that help us share in that person's feelings and thoughts. These neurons offer scientific proof to Aristotle's theory that we human beings are "the most imitative of all living creatures" (Poetics, IV).

No wonder St. Paul told the Thessalonians that he and his companions tried to be role models! It was "so that you might imitate us," he wrote (2 Thessalonians 3:9). Paul knew that the Thessalonians had a much better chance of staying close to the Lord if they saw other people trying to do the same thing. He knew that our environment can have a very strong effect on the ways we think, the values we adopt, and the priorities we set for our lives.

This doesn't mean that we are merely robots imitating everyone around us. We are still free human beings, each with our own unique personality. But it does mean that we are meant to live in community. We need the example of fellow believers to help us grow in our faith. And just as important, our brothers and sisters need the witness of our faith for their growth. The more we see holiness in action, the more encouraged we will be to keep pursuing Jesus ourselves.

Of course, we know who Jesus took as his role model. "A son cannot do anything on his own," he told us, "but only what he sees his father doing" (John 5:19). Because Jesus kept his heart fixed on his heavenly Father, everything he said and did sprang from his Father's goodness and love—even his self-sacrificial death on the cross.

So do your mirror neurons a favour. Keep your eyes fixed on Jesus and your brothers and sisters in Christ.

"Jesus, help me to imitate you in all that I do."Word Among Us
