FAQ ABOUT THE RE-OPENING

Is the Sunday obligation reinstated?

Not for this weekend, however it will be reinstated for the following weekend and details will be provided next week.

Is there no limit now on the number of people attending Mass?

There is no limit.

No more pre-registration for contact tracing purposes?

No, there should be no registration or taking of people's information at the church entrance.

Will singing by the congregation be permitted now?

Yes.

Does this mean that there is no more necessity for social distancing?

Correct, there is no social distancing required during religious services.

What restrictions are there for those who are not vaccinated?

There are none, although "masks are recommended in public indoor settings for all people 12 and older who are not yet fully vaccinated."

Do we still have to sanitize pews and contact services after each Mass?

No.

Can we shake hands at the kiss of peace? Should we?

The kiss of peace is to be restored according to the custom of the parish.

Those who are uncomfortable with shaking hands may bow or make a similar gesture to their neighbour.

NO PROPHET IS WELCOME IN HIS COUNTRY

No prophet is properly accepted among his own people who watched him grow up (cf. Mk 6:4). Indeed after Jesus, when he was about 30 years old, had left Nazareth and had already been travelling about preaching and working miracles of healing elsewhere, he once returned to his birthplace and started teaching in the synagogue.

His fellow citizens "were astonished" by his wisdom, and knowing him as "the son of Mary", as the carpenter who had lived in their midst, instead of welcoming him with faith were shocked and took offence (cf. Mk 6:2-3). This reaction is understandable because familiarity at the human level makes it difficult to go beyond this in order to be open to the divine dimension. That this son of a carpenter was the Son of God was hard for them to believe. Jesus actually takes as an example the experience of the prophets of Israel, who in their own homeland were an object of contempt, and identifies himself with them.

Due to this spiritual closure Jesus "could do no mighty work there [Nazareth], except that he laid his hands upon a few sick people and healed them" (Mk 6:5). In fact Christ's miracles are not a display of power but signs of the love of God that is brought into being wherever it encounters reciprocated human faith. Origen writes: "as in the case of material things there exists in some things a natural attraction towards some other thing, as in the magnet for iron... so there is an attraction in such faith towards the divine power."
