Sunday August 29 is the 22 Sunday in Ordinary time with the challenging Gospel about aligning everything in our lives with Jesus Christ. The memorial of St Monica, mother of St Augustine of Hippo (North Africa) is on August 27 in the Church calendar. Her example can help us with this call to align our life with Jesus.

St. Augustine was a tumultuous youth and was converted to Christianity at age 33 through the prayers of his mother, St. Monica, and the teaching of St Ambrose of Milan. Augustine became Bishop of Hippo and was one of the greatest Fathers of the Church. His humility and love of prayer shows in his writings, especially his book, Confessions. He said one time "what breathing is to the body, prayer is to the soul."

St. Monica, his mother and the patron saint of mothers, prayed for his conversion for 28 years. She had a great influence on other people too: with her prayers and humble example, her pagan husband and her cantankerous mother-in-law became Christians.

This is a good weekend to ask God who we should pray for and how to deepen our prayer with Scripture and self-denial. Who knows who God will work on using our prayers????

Fr. Galvon

What breathing is to the body, prayer is to the soul.

St. Augustine

Feast day: August 28

Saint Monica Prayer

Feast day: August 27

Dear Saint Monica, you were once the mournful mother of a prodigal son. Your faithfulness to prayer brought you and your son so close to God that you are now with him in eternity. By your intercession and God's grace, your son St. Augustine became a great and venerable Saint of the Church. Please take my request to God with the same fervor and persistence with which you prayed for your own son.

(Mention your intentions here)

With your needs, worries and anxieties, you threw yourself on the mercy and providence of God. Through sorrow and pain, you constantly devoted yourself to God. Pray for me that I might join you in such a deep faith in God's goodness and mercy.

Above all, dear Saint Monica, pray for me that I may, like your son, turn from my sin and become a great saint for the glory of God.
