INTROIT

Gen 28, 17

HOW AWESOME is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven; and it shall be called the court of God. (Ps. 83, 2 - 3) How lovely is Your dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts! My soul yearns and pines for the courts of the Lord.

EPISTLE

Book of the Revelation

21, 2 - 3

IN THOSE DAYS I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new."

GRADUAL

THIS PLACE was made by God, a priceless mystery; it is without reproof.

V. O God, before Whom stands the choir of angels, give ear to the prayers of Your servants. Alleluia,

ALLELUIA.

Ps. 137, 2

V. I will worship at Your holy temple and give thanks to Your name. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

St. Luke 19, 1 - 10

AT THAT TIME: He entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way.

When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

COMMUNION

Mt. 21, 13

MY HOUSE shall be called the house of prayer; saith the Lord: in it every one that asketh receiveth: and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.
