Welcome to the Cathedral!

This Easter, I urge you to let the Risen Jesus enter your life. Welcome Him as a friend, and with trust. If, for whatever reason, you have been keeping Him at arm’s length, today take a step forward. He will receive you with open arms. If you have been indifferent to His Gospel, take a risk. You won’t be disappointed. And if following Him seems at times almost too difficult, remember that He is close to you and is accompanying you on your journey through life. He will give you the peace you are looking for and the strength to live as His disciple.
