Archdiocese of Vancouver
ARCHBISHOP'S OFFICE

Dear brother and sisters in the Risen Lord:

"I have risen and I am with you still."

May these words resound in all our hearts as we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus this Easter. After his Death on the cross, He has conquered sin and death by rising from the tomb.

We joyfully shout that Jesus is alive. He is our hope. He is with us in our disappointments, our hardships and our doubts. He is with us even when we stray and cannot find our way back to him. The Risen One is always there for us, our families and our parish communities.

With the liturgical Easter Sequence, as pilgrims of hope during this Jubilee Year, we gladly repeat: "Christ, my hope, is risen!" During this year of grace, we are recipients of this new and living hope of eternal life. The Resurrection solidly anchors this hope, which does not disappoint us. On Easter morning, Jesus' light dispelled the darkness of the tomb. Today, He wants His light to penetrate even to the darkest corners of our lives.

It is through His Death and Resurrection that Jesus rescues us and gives us new life.

Because we are united to Him in Baptism, we, too, have risen. We have passed from death to life, from the slavery of sin to the freedom of the children of God.

For Jesus to draw "all people to himself," to answer the questions and that people everywhere ask, He needs us, his People of the Archdiocese of Vancouver. We are His eyes and ears, His arms and legs in this corner of the Vineyard.

The good Lord has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light, to proclaim everywhere His mighty works. Just as Jesus entrusted His disciples with a mission before returning to His Father, today he sends us out into our world as His heralds of hope, accompanying us with His presence: "I am with you always, to the end of the age" (Mt 28:20).

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, the silent witness of her Son's Death and Resurrection, whose hope remained ever alive, increase our hope in Him who promises that He will make all things new.

With my blessing and prayers that you and your loved ones will enjoy the many graces of this special Easter season during this Jubilee Year of Hope,

With my blessing,

+ J. Michael Miller CSB
